

one day. He does not realize that what has been recorded in history.

28th. O'Meara bearded Hudson Lowe that in his opinion I had not six months a good thing to have such a witness, it annoys

29th. St. Napoleon ought to be very kind to me, and do everything in his power for me to come. Poor fellow; nobody knew him before even a day in the calendar. I got him one, from the Pope to give him the fifteenth of August day.

November 2d. I could listen to the intel death of my wife, of my son, or of all my father a change of feature. Not the slightest sign alteration of countenance, would be visible would appear indifferent and calm. But in my room, then I suffer. Then the feeling burst forth.

30th. The King of Bavaria did not wish daughter to Eugene, declaring that he did not adoption meant, and that he could only call Viscount de Beauharnais. Josephine had to do with some slights at Munich, where they appear in her presence the affection between the pair